INT. MANDY'S CHILDHOOD BEDROOM- NIGHT

MANDY is an aspiring youtuber. She is filming herself using the front-facing camera on her phone.

MANDY

Hey guys! It's Mandy. As I'm sure you all know from my many instagram posts, I just got back from Italy. I know everyone said I shouldn't go, but flights for $100 round trip? That's too good to pass up! Well, the CDC is making me self-quarantine for 14 days, and my mom is actually being like super strict about it! Can you believe that? Whatever. Since I'm locked in my room all day, I figured I should go ahead and share my quarantine daily routine with you. And a special thanks to Slip for sponsoring this video! Let's get started.

INT. MANDY'S CHILDHOOD BEDROOM- DAY

Mandy is sitting up in bed. She yawns. She checks her watch.

MANDY

I wake up around 2:00pm everyday, because my body isn't used to being able to sleep all day yet. At this point, I switch out my pillow with the pink slip pillowcase for the pillow with the blue slip pillowcase, because the pink one was getting kinda flat.

Mandy goes back to bed.

Mandy wakes up again. It is now really dark in her room. She fumbles around and turns on the light. She checks her watch again.

MANDY

Oh hell yeah, 8pm! At this point I can't really go back to sleep so I finally get up and get ready for the day. Plus I haven't peed in like 20 hours, so I'm about to burst.

INT. MANDY'S BATHROOM

Mandy is looking in the mirror and washing her hands.

MANDY

Woo, nothing like that first morning pee!

Mandy dries her hands. Then, she shows a hair tie to the camera.

MANDY

Now to get ready, I first put my hair up using this black slip hair tie.

She ties her hair up. Then, she lazily brushes her teeth and splashes some water on her face.

MANDY

Then, I brush my teeth and wash my face. I'm not really sure why though since I'm stuck in this room for 14 days. Whatever I guess.

(Out of breath)

Since my mom won't let me out of my room, I gotta make my own fun. Tangled was always my favorite princess movie, and I've never related to her more. Y'know. Since we're both HELD CAPTIVE BY OUR MOTHERS!

MANDY'S MOM (O.S.)

It's for the best, sweetie!

Mandy sighs and sits on her bed.

MANDY

After my mom yells at me like always, I get back in bed and watch Real Housewives. Normally, I watch it with my mom, but since she has me locked in here, I am watching by myself.

Mandy puts on Real Housewives.

MANDY

I make sure to text my mom all the spoilers.

Mandy smiles mischievously.

A few hours pass. She has not moved. Finally, she grabs her stomach.

MANDY

After a few hours, I text my mom and ask her to bring me some food. Since I'm forced to self-isolate, I basically have room service everyday. It's so nice.

A half hour later, there is a knock on Mandy's door. Mandy looks at her watch. She waits thirty seconds. Then she gets up and goes to the door. There is a plate sitting on the ground.

MANDY

When my mom brings me food, I have to wait until she has left the hallway before I get up and get it. Otherwise, I could technically infect her.

MANDY (CONT'D)

She's been so dramatic about this whole thing, but whatever I guess.

Mandy opens her door. There is nothing there.

MANDY

What the hell? Mom? Where's my food?!

Suddenly, she gets hit in the face with a head of lettuce.

MANDY

Ow! Mom?!

MANDY'S MOM (O.S.)

Here's your salad sweetie!

MANDY

Wait, no! Mom! Come back! What about dressing?!

A bottle of dressing flies toward Mandy.

Mandy watches her mom walk away. She sighs. She picks up the plate from the ground and goes back to her bed. She eats her food and watches netflix. Her plate is filled with carbs.

MANDY

(Eating)

My mom makes sure to give me a lot of carbs in my meals, so I can fall asleep easier. Melatonin, who?

She takes another bite.

MANDY

Anyway, I'm going to finish my dinner, eat, and then fall asleep again. I'll update you guys next week!

A week later. Mandy looks completely different. Her hair is messy and there is food all over her face. She is kinda sweaty and pale.

MANDY

Hey guys! I just wanted to give you a quarantine update. Everything is going great over here. I've never felt better in my life.

Mandy reveals her mom in bed next to her.

MANDY

I'm less lonely now, since my mom finally decided to keep me company.

MANDY'S MOM

You got me sick.

MANDY

Ha! Sorry about all of those dirty dishes, mom.

Mandy's mom shoots her a dirty look. Mandy smiles, then she cough aggressively for a really long time.

MANDY

Just a few more days and I can rejoin society! Woo!

Mandy sneezes and falls out of her chair.

END.
